

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WILL AID IN OREGON

Plans to Throw Whole Power of Its Organization Here to Bring About State Prohibition.

ADVANCE GUARD OF ORATORS COME EARLY IN APRIL

Several Orators and Ex-Governors of International Fame Will Open Preliminary Campaign.

[UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE.] Westerville, Ohio, March 14.—The Anti-Saloon League of America, whose headquarters and general publishing house is in this city, has determined to throw the whole power of its organization to the assistance of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon and other organizations co-operating with it for a dry Oregon this year.

At a recent national convention of the league held at Columbus, Ohio, that body was completely re-organized. Prior to that, the national body was a loose federation of the state leagues without much control over local organizations. The re-organized body is a compact machine, in which all of the state organizations become departments of the national organization. This re-organization becomes effective on June 1. The country is divided into sixteen districts, at the head of each of which is a representative and member of the national board of trustees. The member of the national board from the far northwest is Hon. Fletcher Homan, of Salem, Oregon.

The heads of the Oregon state department of the league are Rev. J. H. Bennett, president, and Hon. H. L. Sheldon, superintendent. The offices of the state are located in the Stock Exchange Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

Come Second Week in April.
The second week in April, the advance guard of the national spellbinders will enter the state and conduct the preliminary series of rallies. The preliminary campaign will be opened by the strongest speakers at the command of the national organization. There are several ex-governors and orators of international fame. Among them are such men as Hon. Malcolm B. Patterson, ex-governor of Tennessee, ex-congressman and one of the foremost orators of the entire south.

Twice was Mr. Patterson elected governor of his own state and, until some months ago, he was the strongest advocate of the licensed saloon in America. He vetoed prohibition bills that had passed the Tennessee legislature, pardoned convicted liquor dealers by the wholesale and spoke on the platform in defense of the trade. Some months ago, he was converted and joined the Presbyterian church in his home city of Memphis. Shortly afterwards, he reversed his position on the liquor question and has since fought for prohibition of the liquor traffic with greater fury than he formerly supported it.

Glenn Also Coming.
Ex-Governor Robert B. Glenn of North Carolina is another of the "converts" who will speak in behalf of a dry Oregon. Hon. John G. Woolley, at one time candidate for president on the prohibition ticket, will be another of the "big guns" that will take part in the Oregon fight. Others who will come to Oregon to take a hand in the fray for the national organization are Rev. Dr. Purley A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League; Rev. George W. Morrow, of Michigan; Rev. Sam Small, of Georgia; Ernest H. Cherrington, general manager of the publishing interests of the Anti-Saloon League of America; Dr. Howard H. Russell, founder of the original Anti-Saloon organization; Rev. Edwin C. Diawiddle, legislative superintendent of the league, Washington, D. C.; William E. Johnson, formerly chief officer of the United States Indian Service, now editor of the New Republic and managing editor of the thirty odd periodicals of the league; and the famous baritone singer, A. M. Thatcher of Chicago.

Ripe for Prohibition.
Because of the importance of carrying such states as Washington, Oregon and California, league leaders will use every effort to make these states dry. They declare the whole country west of the Mississippi river is ripe for prohibition. The opening of the Panama canal with the prospect of great increase of foreign population, makes it imperative, in the minds of league men, to vote the west dry now.

The second week in April, the advance squad of national orators will strike Oregon, and for a week the liquor interests will be chastised in as vigorous English as the dictionary has words for. Ex-Governor Patterson and Dr. Purley A. Baker will begin their speaking tour at Ashland, April 9. Their other dates are: April 10, Eugene; April 12, Portland; April 13, Oregon City; April 14, Astoria.

Hon. John G. Woolley and George W. Morrow speak at but three places. April 9 Corvallis; April 10 Grants Pass; April 11 at some point yet undetermined.

Dr. Howard H. Russell, founder of the league, accompanied by Prof. Thatcher, will speak at St. Johns, April 8; April 9 at Albany; April 10 at Roseburg and at some point on April 11.

Rev. Sam Small, the famous Georgia evangelist enters the state with a series of dates beginning at Baker City on April 8 and ending at Medford, April 21.

Literature Campaign.
An elaborate literature campaign is being planned on the part of the national organization. It is expected that headquarters will be opened probably at Portland or Seattle. The details of this are not finally determined. The present plan is that the literature campaign will be managed by William E. Johnson, who acquired the sobriquet of "Pussy-foot" during his five years' service as chief of the United States Indian Service for the suppression of the liquor traffic among Indians, and who is well known in the Indian sections of the northwest.

The theory of this sort of thing is that when any state is engaged in a contest for state wide prohibition, all of the other states, acting through the national organization come to the rescue and focus the energies of the temperance forces of the nation upon the particular state in question.

BOER VETERAN LEADS ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED AND FIGHTS

[UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE.] Dublin, March 14.—Leading a march on the lord mayor's home yesterday, at the head of an army of unemployed, Captain White, son of the late Field Marshal Sir George Stuart White, defender of Ladysmith during the Boer war, met a battalion charge of police so fiercely that a charge of assault was laid against him. These were made by police inspectors, a sergeant of police, two policemen and the driver of a mail wagon.

Captain White, wielding a club, inflicted severe wounds on Inspector Purcell who led the police. During the brief but sanguinary riots, many heads among the attacking and defending forces were clubbed, among them that of Captain White.

WASHINGTON SALOONS TO GO.

[UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE.] Washington, March 14.—The actual work of weeding out a number of the capital's saloons under the Jones-Works excise law will begin Monday. The city's excise board had before it a mass of data showing what places will fall under the ban of the new law. This requires that saloons shall not be located near schools or churches. Up to a certain limit, the saloons are automatically abolished. Additional pruning, under a reduction clause of the law, will further reduce the establishments.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't Hesitate! A Laxative Is Necessary if Tongue Is Coated, Breath Bad or Stomach Sour.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach cold, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

SAILOR SHOTS WOMAN AND THEN WOUNDS HIMSELF

[UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE.] San Francisco, March 14.—James Balms, a sailor, yesterday afternoon shot and probably fatally wounded Miss Martha Bolte, 26 years old, and then turned the revolver on himself. Both are in a critical condition at the Central Emergency hospital.

Earlier in the day Balms and Miss Bolte engaged in a dispute over a trial marriage they had contracted several months ago. A month later she left town, and when she returned refused to live with him again. Balms again called at the house shortly after noon and started shooting when Miss Bolte refused to listen to his proposal that they be legally married.

"THE LAST RESORT" IS REGULAR MELODRAMA

Makes One of Most Vicious and Violent Attacks on Judiciary Yet Seen in Broadway Playhouse.

CRAFTY LAWYER CONTROLS CIRCUIT COURT IN PLAY

Heroine Has Place Honeycombed With Dictaphons and Gets Goods and Wicked are Punished.

BY BEAU RIALTO.
(Written for the United Press.)

New York, March 14.—"The Last Resort," at the Longacre theater is not that at all. It is a regular melodrama of the ten-twenty pattern and grips the feelings, risibilities and emotions even if it totally lacks the logic that appeals to the brain. And better still, it is a clean play, even if George Scarborough, lurid chronicler of white slavery did write it. Scarborough, who wrote "The Lure" and "A Bay" both of which aroused storms of comment and were short-lived in New York because of their salacious features, surprised his followers with "The Last Resort" is true to life. It shows up the very things in our judicial system that are making men agitate reforms. The things this play depicts are the things that caused voters to demand the initiative and referendum and caused Colonel Roosevelt to advocate the recall of judges' decisions.

"The Last Resort" is a strong play with an undertone of hard common sense and if the author had made it too stagy and flamboyant, he might have accomplished great good. The heroine is a pretty newspaper girl who loves the hero and is always on the lookout for a good story for her paper. The hero is a young lawyer, filled with zeal for the rule of the people. He has made so much money that he does not need any more and he starts out to clean up the government, starting in with the judiciary. The villain is a former United States senator, now a corporation lawyer who holds the state's appellate court in the hollow of his hand by controlling two of the members. There are only three judges and until the last act it is believed that the third judge, the chief justice who is an honest man, can do anything.

Well, then, the young lawyer, prosecuting the damage suit of an Irish washerwoman against the corporation lawyer's railroad, calls the trial judge a crook. He is sent to jail for contempt. The case is appealed. The two corrupt appellate judges and the ex-senator "frameup" the reformer and are ready to railroad him when the newspaper girl bursts from the telephone booth, breaking the glass and tells them she has the place honeycombed with dictaphons—a machine invented on purpose for melodrama—and "know all."

The corrupt judges arrange to try the girl for burglary and she gets five years. The reformer is sent up for an indefinite term. While he is in jail, the "peepul" elect him governor. They also re-elect the chief justice, who gives the girl a stay of execution, releases the hero on a habeas corpus writ and issues warrants for the two crooked judges and the ex-senator. Then, all in the same breath the chief justice marries the hero and the pretty reporter and immediately the new governor pardons his wife and himself. Of course, the law by which this is done is a bit hazy, but what matter? It's a melodrama and thrilling. Just an afterthought: Some day some revolutionary play-carpenter will make his hero out of a corporation lawyer. Then woe to the critics howl!

William Collier, of the defunct "Who's Who?" and "A Little Water on the Side," experiments, went into a Broadway lunch counter place the other day, when in a hurry and ordered fried eggs.

"I want the same—but mind they are fresh," said a man sitting next to the comedian. "Fried eggs—two to come—and make one fresh," bawled the waiter to the window chef and now Collier eats elsewhere.

"What Would You Do?" Most folks who saw the play by that name at the Hudson theater would not go again. That's one of the answers. There are a lot more. Some players might answer the query by saying they would re-write the play if they were Augustine Mac Hugh, the author. How any man who wrote the exquisite comedy and screaming situations to be seen last season in "Officer 666" could put out the drivel that went to make up "What Would You Do?" was more than the average first-nighter could understand.

An uninitiated observer would have been justified in thinking that it was Mac Hugh's first play—he made this mistake common to reviews of trying to put all his cleverness in four acts. There is too much wit, too much sarcasm, too much coincidence in the play. It pulls one out, cloy the appetite and turns the mental stomach.

The Double Guarantee

When you buy a standard, nationally advertised article from a merchant of standing and character you are buying with double protection to yourself.

You have a double guarantee to fall back on—that of the manufacturer and that of the man who sells the goods.

You of course have to deal only with the store from which you buy; the store, in turn, looks to the manufacturer to make good for any deficiency.

It is not often that anyone will have need of the guarantee; for when a thing is sold by such open and above-board methods it is going to be as nearly right as it can possibly be made.

There is a protection in buying advertised goods that there isn't in buying those which are not advertised.

The best guide to reliable buying is the advertising in live newspapers like The Capital Journal.

More people are reading advertising every day because it pays.
